

INTIMATIONS.

THE Steamship
"PEKING."
Captain G. Henderson, will be despatched for the above Port TO-DAY, the 25th instant, at FOUR P.M.
For Freight or Passage, apply to
RUSSELL & Co.
Hongkong, 24th April, 1883. [82]

THE CHINA AND MANILA STEAM-SHIP COMPANY, LIMITED.
FOR AMOY.
THE Steamship
"LIDO," Captain Lewis, will be despatched for the above Port TO-DAY, the 25th instant, at FOUR P.M.
For Freight or Passage, apply to
RUSSELL & Co.
General Managers.
Hongkong, 24th April, 1883. [83]

UNION LINE.
FOR YOKOHAMA.
THE Steamship
"MOSSER," Captain Langley, will leave on or about the 25th inst. and will have immediate despatch for the above port.
For Freight or Passage, apply to
RUSSELL & Co.
Hongkong, 24th April, 1883. [83]

THE NETHERLANDS-INDIA STEAM NAVI-GATION COMPANY, LIMITED.
FOR RATAVIA, SAMARANG, AND SOERABAYA, VIA SAIGON AND PONTIANAK.
THE Company's Steamship
"CAMORTA."

For Freight or Passage, apply to
JARDINE, MATHESON & Co.,
 Agents.
 Hongkong, 24th April, 1883. [82]

CASTLE LINE OF STEAMERS.
 FOR SHANGHAI.
 THE Steamship
 "GORDON CASTLE," Leaving, Commenced, exposed here TO-MORROW, will have immediate despatch for the above Port.
 For Freight or Passage, apply to

Hongkong, 24th April, 1883. 1825

SHIRE LINE OF STEAMERS.

FOR YOKOHAMA AND HIOGO.

THE Steamship

"BREGONSHIRE."

Williams, Commander, expected here on or about the 26th instant, will have immediate despatch for the above Ports.

For Freight or Passage, apply to ADAMSON, BELL & Co.,
Agents.

Hongkong, 24th April, 1883. 1826.

TO LET.
AT KOWLOON.
THE MARINE VILLA, (12 Rooms) with Outhouses, Garden, Lawn Tennis, &c.
The BELLE VUE, near Mount Eden—(10 Rooms) with Outhouses, Garden, Lawn Tennis, &c.
Apply to
A. P. ALVES.
Kowloon, 25th April, 1893. [828]

GUANGZHOU CHURCH
 Small HOUSES, Praya West.
 Apply to SHARP & Co. 5063
 Hongkong, 11th April, 1883.

SAINT JOHN'S CATHEDRAL CHURCH
THE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE SEATHOLDERS OF SAINT JOHN'S CATHEDRAL CHURCH will be held at the Vestry TO-MORROW, the 20th day of April instant, at 4.30 p.m., for the purpose of electing two Trustees for the ensuing year, for passing the Accounts of the Treasurer under the Provisions of Clauses 4 and 16 of Ordinance No. 2 of 1847.

Acting Treasurer to the Body of Trustees.

Hongkong, 17th April, 1883. [709]

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

APPROACHES TO HONGKONG—WEST
LAMMA CHANNEL.

ROCK.—A rock, which dries 3 feet at low water spring tides, lies off the East-Point of Cauing Chau. From it East Point of Chueny Chau East Point dries 31 Cables. S. E. Point Cables bears S. 60° W. distant 6.3 Cables.
This position differs 1½ yards in a S.
67° 16' E. direction from that given on

A sunken rock, with 6 feet on it at low water spring tides, lies 75 feet S. $39^{\circ} 10'$ from the rock which dries and is about 10 feet square, and another lies about 200 feet to the S.W. of the same rock.

WRECK.—The wreck of the Edward Castle lies in the bathos. The wreck is 100 feet S. of the E. Point of Chung Chau bears N. 47° distance 4.3 Cables.

S.E. Point of Chung Chau bears 'West' distance 5.4 Cables.

Rock which dries bears N. 1° E. 3.0 Cables.

ROCK.—A sunken rock is reported to exist about 3 Cables W.N.W. of the West Point of Chung Chau.

The hearings are at HUGH R. EVANS,
 Lieut. in charge of Survey.
H. M. S. Maggie,
 Hongkong, 21st April, 1893. [210]
 This Notice affects the following Admiralty Charts &c., Nos. 2651, (a) and (b) China Sea Northern Portion Sheet 1 and 2, 2613, China East Coast Sheet 1, 1962, China East Coast Sheet 2, 1466, Hongkong. Also "China Sea Directory" Vol. III, 1874, pages 32, 38, 74, 57.

SPECIAL NOTICE

MRS. J. F. ROSE,
 (NEXT DOOR HONGKONG HOTEL),

With Reference to the above Notice to the Community of Hongkong and the Coast Parish are respectfully informed that the

on from the 1st May, 1888, by Misses GAT & FAIRALL on their own account under the Style of GATE & FAIRALL.
April 16th, 1893. (75)

NATURAL CHAMPAGNE.

LEMOINE'S VIN BRUT.

L. ANNE, CRAWFORD & Co. have been Appointed Agents for the Sale of the above Wine by

Messrs. DENMAN & Co.,
Piccadilly, London.

VIN BRUT

is light in colour, fresh and clean, its exhilarating properties not being vitiated by added Sugar and Spirit, it will therefore agree with persons to whom the ordinary and sweetened Champagnes are injurious.

The undoubted Purity of this fine CHAM-PAGE, combined with its very low price, viz:—

317 per Dozen Quarts, $18 per Dozen Pints.

Should command for it a very large Sale, especially during the summer months.

L. ANNE, CRAWFORD & Co.
Hongkong, 18th April, 1883. [323]

NOTICE.

A. S. WATSON & CO.,
FAMILY AND DISPENSARY
CHEMISTS.

By Appointment to His Excellency the Government and His Royal Highness the DUKE OF EDINBURGH,
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DRUGGISTS, PERFORMERS.

PATENT MEDICINE VENDORS, DRUGGISTS, SUNDRIES, AND
ARRANGED WATER MAKERS.

SHIPS' MEDICINE CHESTS REFITTED, PASSENGER SHIP SUPPLIES.

NOTICE.—To avoid delay in the execution of Orders it is particularly requested that all business communications be addressed to the Firm, A. S. WATSON & Co., or HONGKONG DISPENSARY. [23]

NOTICES TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Communications on Editorial matters should be addressed "The Editor," and those on business "The Manager," and not to individuals by name.
Correspondents are requested to forward their names and address with communications addressed to the Editor, for publication, but as evidence of good faith.
All letters for publication should be written on one side of the paper only.

Advertisements and Subscriptions which are not ordered for a fixed period will be continued until countermanded.

Orders for extra copies of the Daily Press should be sent before 11 a.m. of the day of publication.
After that hour the supply is limited.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, APRIL 25TH, 1883.

THERE must be something wrong in our Gaoi when those who have passed several years within its walls seek immediately upon their discharge to qualify themselves for re-admission. Instead of being a terror to evil doers it seems to possess irresistible charms for them. When Sir JOHN POPE HENNESSY effected his alterations in our system of dealing with criminals, doing away with deportation, reducing the use of the lash practically to a nullity, and substituting for long sentences on old offenders, he said that the effect of the old system had been to create crime, whereas the effect of the new one would be, while increasing the average number of prisoners in the goal, to reduce crime. The system has now had several years' trial. What results has it shown?
From the Police Returns we learn that there has been a steady increase in serious crime, and from the great number of gaol birds brought before the Courts we learn that in their case their detention in goal has had no deterrent effect on them. The Colony is therefore charged with the maintenance of a largely increased number of criminals, and the good effect which was anticipated in the reduction of crime has not been realised.
So far, therefore, experience shows that the change has been a decided loser by the change which was effected, by our late humanitarian Governor. Old offenders are continually making their appearance before our Courts, many of them having served sentences of five years' penal servitude less the remission of one-third which is given to all long sentence prisoners who do not forfeit it by exceptionally bad conduct during their period of incarceration.
It would be much better to deport these men instead of sending them back to goal to be supported by the community for another term of years. In course of time we anticipate that the former system, so far as regards deportation, will have to be reverted to. The punishment for returning from deportation would, of course, have to be made sufficiently severe to keep the deportees away from the Colony. This might no doubt be effected by making the gaol discipline more severe in their case. Whipping would no doubt be the readiest and most effectual means of effecting the object, but that form of punishment is not likely to be sanctioned again for any but crimes of violence, in respect of which it is indeed still operative, though it is very seldom applied. We note, however, that the Chief Justice at the Criminal Sessions on Friday intimated that he would have no hesitation in ordering whipping in cases of brutal violence.

THERE are still, we believe, some credulous and ignorant persons who profess to believe that torture, though not forbidden, is rarely resorted to in Chinese Courts of Justice. These persons are the advocates of the abolition of the extra-territorial clauses in the treaties, and would like to see their countrymen committed to the tender mercies of the mandarins. Such individuals would do well to read the following abstract made by the N.
O. Daily News of a recent memorial published in the Peking Gazette by one of the Consuls:—"The picture drawn by the Consul of the administration of justice in the Central Kingdom is horrible, and more than bears out the worst representations of the most prejudiced foreign observers. It is, however, in no cynical spirit that the Consul enumerates the villanies perpetrated by provincial authorities in the name of the law, but in the hope of putting, if possible, a stop to the abuse. As soon as ever an accused man is brought before the Court, he is subjected to torture, in order to bring a confession out of him. Ingenuity is exhausted in the contrivance of these tortures, which include plunging the man into boiling water, burning his flesh with red hot irons, cutting his shins in two, seating the crown of his head, hanging him up by the heels, crushing him under heavy weights, driving nails into his joints, and striking his bones with hammers.

Under these unnatural tortures it is not surprising that the poor wretch should shout out a confession of something of which he is quite innocent, and this confession is of course made the most of, the victim being warned by his tormentors that if he retracts while under examination at the provincial capital he will be sent back again to undergo fresh horrors. "In some cases," even, writes the Consul, "clerks are secrete-ly sent to the prison, who take advantage of the dying man's unconscious state to press his thumbs on depositions prepared by themselves; and they then submit these depositions as the statements made "by the prisoner before his death." The Emperor issues the usual Decree, blustering a little about all this being contrary to law, yet there are not wanting writers who will praise the beneficent system of government in China, and who wax indignant at the objections raised by those who know China and her rulers to her Government being treated with on the same basis as civilised states. The tortures mentioned by the Consul may not be employed in every Court or in all the provinces, but even in the Nanchow Magistracy at Canton we have seen prisoners tied up by their thumbs and their ankles and beaten with a piece of heavy hardwood. This is a common every-day occurrence, and is not regarded as torture properly so called.
The Chinese themselves regard the employment of torture as a matter of course. The Chinese people will not, as a rule, they say, speak the truth, and it has to be wrung from them by some means if justice is to be done. If true, this pity. It is high time that an effort was made by the Government to teach respect for veracity among the people. They inculcate respect for the written character with infinite care; surely, admonitions concerning the value of the spoken truth are more urgently needed. There is unfortunately far more attention paid by the Police Authorities to the whitening of the exterior than to the cleansing of the heart of the body politic.

Telegrams for Bangkok can go forward by mail closing at Singapore at 3 p.m. to-morrow, the 25th inst.

The steamer Haven was still, it is stated, on shore at the lower Nine Ports in the Peiho on the 15th inst.

The American Consul paid a visit yesterday on board the U. S. frigate Richmond, and a salute of seven guns was fired in his honour.

The Agents (Messrs. Adamson, Bell & Co.) inform us that the steamer Deutchman, from London, left Singapore on the 22nd inst. for this port.

We (N. O. Daily Press) learn that the Hingsang will sail with a full cargo leaving Thames. The junk man, but unfortunately no lives were lost.

From the Agents (Messrs. Adamson, Bell & Co.) we learn that the D. R. steamer Atlanta, from Hamburg, left Singapore on the 19th inst. for Hongkong.

The Agents (Messrs. Russell & Co.) inform us that the Union Line steamer Mosier, from London, left Singapore on Thursday morning, the 19th inst., for this port.

The steamer Harmon arrived at Manila on the 10th inst. having in tow the Russian ship Belofort, which was damaged by a mine and foremast on the opposite coast of Luzon.

The Manila Consulate says the Vice Consul of Spain has forwarded to the Consul General of the Philippines the sum of $424, subscribed at Manila in aid of the sufferers by the typhoon of last year.

The Monarchs (Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co.) have received telegraphic information that the Indo-China S. N. Co. chartered steamer from London, left Singapore for this port on Monday, the 22nd inst.

It is reported in Bangkok that the Kingdon Princess, who was married to Prince Siam, intends to go to the Shan States and seek their assistance against King Theebaw. The report is said to have caused a sensation among the Burmese.

The vessel given by the New York Herald of the treaty concluded by Commodore Shufeldt with Korea is so radically different from that published by the N. O. Daily Press, and then copied by us from that journal, that we reproduce it in full.

The Strait Times says:—"The party of French engineers who have been surveying the route of the proposed Kraw canal, who started from Bangkok some time ago in company with Captain Lefevre of the Siam Marine Survey, have completed their work, and coming down the west coast, arrived at Singapore on the 13th inst., from Penang, by the steamer Albatross, on their way back to France. They are not in a position to make public any particulars regarding the result of their survey."

The Strait Times says:—"The Russian steamer Rusik arrived at Singapore on the 13th inst., having on board a large number of passengers, including a Russian merchant, who had been sent to Siberia, among whom small-pox had made its appearance. Two passengers, a Russian merchant bound to China to purchase tea, with his wife, being down with the disease, were landed here and the Russian merchant, a German medical officer, and the vessel proceeded on its voyage after cooling, with seven other cases of small-pox board amongst the prisoners or colonists."

The Ceylon Observer gives the following "glimpse of the Ministry of Justice:—"We learn that such good progress was made by the five European and 50 or 60 Maldivians engaged on this work, when the Perseverance was lost there, that it is expected the foundation of the work has been laid by this time. The lightness is being erected about a mile from the extreme south-western point of Minicoy Island. The Ceylon has just started with a supply of stores, of which the European staff now considerably more than half."

Two gentlemen are athletic sports promoted among the men to such an extent as is the case with the ladies, and many have been committed to the tender mercies of the mandarins. Such individuals would do well to read the following abstract made by the N.
O. Daily News of a recent memorial published in the Peking Gazette by one of the
Consuls:—"The picture drawn by the Consul
of the administration of justice in the Central
Kingdom is horrible, and more than
bears out the worst representations of the
most prejudiced foreign observers. It is,
however, in no cynical spirit that the Consul
enumerates the villanies perpetrated by provincial authorities in the name of the law,
but in the hope of putting, if possible, a stop
to the abuse. As soon as ever an accused
man is brought before the Court, he is subjected to torture, in order to bring

The Russian steamer Peterburg and Bavaria are on their way to Vladivostok with batches of convicts. The former vessel arrived here yesterday with 800 convicts, and the latter with 700.
The convicts are being sent to the Amur, and proceed to Hankow and load with tea for Olsan.

A short notice in the Employer, Mr. Vincent, storekeeper, Wellington-street, was brought before Mr. Woodhouse on remand yesterday on a charge of stealing $85 in notes $10 in gold, and seven revolvers, value together $300, belonging to his employer on the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was taken, and it appeared that he went downstairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st inst. and to his surprise, found the door open, instead of being closed and fastened with iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in gold, all gone. He immediately reported the matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was taken, and it appeared that he went downstairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was
taken, and it appeared that he went down-
stairs to his shop on the morning of the 21st
inst., and to his surprise, found the door
open, instead of being closed and fastened with
iron bar as he expected. He looked round
the shop, and saw his till lying on the floor, $85 in notes, with some small silver, and $10 in
gold, all gone. He immediately reported the
matter to the police, and the case was remanded
to the 21st inst. Mr. Vincent's evidence was

